Ohrist child came, the saint met with an unexpected difficulty, for the child, seeming so light, was a tremendous burden because He carried the sins of the world upon His back. The child, after bearing down the saint, had to carry the saint over the river. The idea in wearing a medal of the saint is that of the story-if the saint fails, there is Christ, as Saviour of the world, able to bear all across life's stream. Thus the young theologian sends back the message that he is depending upon Christ. He wears a medal of St. Christopher all the time on every flight.
